95 DEAD IN HILLSBOROUGH

DISASTER

Report by Phil
Coleman

kick off. We had to climb two sets of railings; we got out just in time.

"We saw horrible things. There were people running around crying, and bodies laid all over the place. I saw a girl of about 17, lying dead on the pitch.

"We saw one bloke
who couldn't find his son. He was asking a policeman to help him find his son. He was desperate.

"But there was nothing we could do. We did help lift a few people over the railings out of the central stand and we saw
many people lifted

out of the crowd onto
the upper terrace.
But there were just too many people."

Martin described

'We saw
horrible things.
There were people running around crying
and bodies laid
all over the place.'

how fans on the pitch
had made desperate
attempts to rip down
the perimeter fence
that trapped the crowd. The two friends also witnessed how fans were enraged by photographers, intent on photographing the tragic scenes. "Fans were shouting at the photographers and

demanding they hand
over the films," said
Jim.

The friends, who work at Derek Pikes
in Rotherham saw also how those at the ground rallied round
to save lives and help
the injured. "Once people knew what was happening,
everybody helped,"
said Martin.

He added: "But it
was a horrible and disturbing experience. I'll never forget what we saw."

Both Martin and Jim say they will only go back to matches
when there is seating
for everybody and
the grounds are made safer.

"Something has got to be done," said
Jim.

minute

death'

Local lads Jim
Hodgson and Martin
Oxborough who witnessed the disaster at Hillsborough.

This week, as yet
more details of the nightmare emerge,
the Rotherham Record presents two local accounts of Britain's worst ever
sporting disaster.

Rotherham work-
mates Martin Oxborough and Jim Hodgson escaped
from Hillsborough's central stand just five minutes before the crush that killed 94 people.

The decision to climb the seven foot high fence into a neighbouring stand almost certainly saved their lives.

But in the hour
that followed, Martin
and Jim witnessed scenes of horror that they will never forget.

21 year old Martin, a mechanic of Hungerhill Road,
Kimberworth, said:
"We turned up at the Leppings Lane end of the ground at about ten to two. We decided to move onto
the stand and stayed
there for about 20
minutes."

Jim, a parts manager of Cantley, Doncaster, said: "At about 2.15 the crowd
surged forward and
to escape the crush
we moved forward.
We went down towards the front of
the stand and stayed
there for about 25
minutes. We didn't think there was any danger."

As the crowd packed into the stand, becoming more crushed, the two friends made
their fateful decision
to scale the seven foot railings.

Said Martin: "We
climbed the fence at about five minutes to three — just before

HILLSBOROUGH DISASTER

ONE MINUTE AWAY FROM DEATH

Rotherham teenager Michael Bowers was one minute away from death in last weekend's tragedy at Hillsborough.

Eighteen old Michael, a "devout" Liverpool fan, had arrived at the ground two and a half hours before the planned kick off time.

Michael was keen to get the best possible view of the semi final clash between Liverpool and Nottingham Forest — and like hundreds of other fans he took his place on the ill fated central stand at the Leppings Lane end of the ground.

In the hours that followed, Michael found himself at the centre of Britain's worst ever sporting disaster.

As kick off time approached, Michael became helplessly pinned to a crush barrier, unable to either move or breathe. The memory of that day will haunt him for the rest of his life.

Michael, of Rotherwood Crescent, Thurgroft, spoke this week of how he survived the tragedy, which claimed 95 lives.

He said: "I was one of the first people in stand B, where it all happened. I got there by 12.30 because I went to last year's semi final at Hillsborough and got a bad view because I got there at 2 p.m."

"It was all normal enough to begin with: I had my ticket checked, was searched and then went to the back of the stand and sat down to read the programme.

"But at around 2 o'clock, the terrace began to fill up. At about 2.20 I saw the players come out in suits to inspect the pitch.

"Then, ten minutes before the kick off, there was a mad crush. The crowd surged forward. I was pinned against a fence on one side and a crush barrier on the other.

"It just got worse and worse. I didn't realise how serious it was until I noticed I was lying on top of a young lad, about fifteen or sixteen years old. He was dead. It was just one big mass of bodies. I was in bad pain and could hear people screaming.

"It was terrible. My arm was trapped behind the dead boy's head — but I couldn't move at all. And there were other people on top of me.

Unable to take any more, Michael blacked out. He was pulled out of the crush and given emergency first aid on the pitch by fans and St. John Ambulance Officials.

"I've been told they got to me just in time. Another minute and I would have died." Michael was rushed to Sheffield's Hallamshire Hospital, suffering fractures to both hips and severe bruising to his ribs and stomach.

"I came round in hospital and all my family were there. It was an emotional reunion," said Michael, who is now recovering at his Thurgroft home, looked after by brother and parents Sylvia and Mick Higginson.

Added Michael: "I'll get over the injuries. The mental scars are worse. I haven't slept since it happened. I can't close my eyes without seeing it all again."

But in spite of his ordeal, apprentice plumber Michael, who moved from Liverpool to Rotherham ten years ago, is determined not to be beaten by the tragedy.

He said: "I still love football. I've supported Liverpool all my life and intend to be back on the Kop as soon as I can."

Michael went on to praise all of those who had helped him and other fans.

"I had a visit in hospital from Margaret Thatcher. I don't agree with everything she does, but she was brilliant. She was genuinely interested and concerned."

"All my family and my girlfriend Debbie Rigals have been brilliant. And I've been having cards and phone calls from people I don't even know. Everyone was great — the other fans, the medical people and the police."

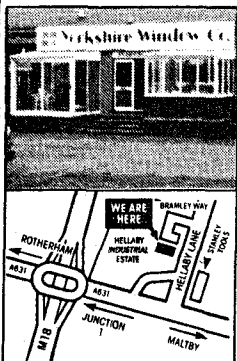

Michael added: "I don't blame anybody for this. It was just a terrible accident. All we can do now is learn the lessons."

Locals Pledge support for disaster Victims

Rotherham business folk are among many across the country who have offered to support the victims of the Hillsborough disaster.

One of the first to offer financial support to the appeal fund now set up was local booksellers and stationers Books N Stuff.

The shop's owners have offered to donate 10% of all their profits to the appeal for as long as it runs.

Support has come also from Rotherham's own football club at Millmoor.

An emergency meeting of the club's board of directors this week decided to hold a collection at the Millers next match this coming Saturday.

There will also be a minute of silence before Saturday's game as a mark of respect to those who lost their lives.

Rotherham Council are also considering whether to make a contribution.

Appeal Concert

Local musicians and singers are also being asked to help the appeal in a special concert tonight (Thursday) at the Cranworth Hotel, Fitzwilliam Road, Rotherham.

Hotel manager Walter John Hartgrave said: "We would like to appeal to local musicians and singers to come along and help raise funds. We already have the top fun band Blue Moon booked for the show and we are hoping that many more will turn up."

Anyone wishing to donate to the Hillsborough Disaster Appeal should send money, cheques or postal orders to: Hillsborough Disaster Appeal, c/o Lord Mayor, Sheffield Town Hall, Surrey Street, Sheffield.

PET KILLINGS CONTINUE

A Moorgate family have become the latest victims in a series of brutal pet killings in the Rotherham area.

Two baby rabbits and two guinea pigs died in the latest attack, carried out in the early hours of last Thursday morning, said the animal's owner, who does not wish to be named for fear of "reprisals".

Now RSPCA officials have repeated warnings to local pet owners to keep a close eye on their pets.

The latest attack comes just one week after a spate of five attacks in the Broom area of Rotherham, in which rabbits and guinea pigs were savaged to death.

The mayhem was at first thought to be the work of a stray dog.

But many of the pet owners involved are convinced that the mystery dog responsible is being egged on by a cruel owner.

The owner of the animals latest victims said: "I was woken up at five past four last Thursday morning. I thought I was dreaming at first. I could hear noises in the garden — the sound of muffled running footsteps. My husband and I looked out of the window into the garden — but we could see nothing.

"The next morning we went into the garden. Both our baby rabbits were dead and both the baby guinea pig and its mother were dead."

One rabbit had died after having its entrails ripped out and the other had died of fright, said the woman.

The killers had broken down a gate at the side of the house to reach the hutches, she said.

She added: "This is the third time this has happened to us. It last happened in November; we lost eight rabbits and five guinea pigs.

"I am convinced there is a person with whatever animal is responsible. I definitely heard the sound of running footsteps. Whoever is doing this must be sick. The whole thing is very upsetting for my little girl. She's only seven and misses her pets terribly."

RSPCA Inspector Nick Welsh said: "It now looks very much as if someone is involved in this series of pet killings. It looks as though we are dealing with a dog that has been taught to kill.

"Sadly, all I can do at the present time is repeat the warning to pet owners to keep as close an eye on their pets as possible. People with rabbits and guinea pigs should try and keep them locked up in sheds overnight. It is a shame this has to be done — but it would be a wise precaution."

A staggering 300,000 summer bedding plants and 40,000 pot and foliage plants are produced annually by Rotherham Council's Central nursery at Herringthorpe — part of the Amenities and Recreation department.

And if anyone wants to see how it's done, there is the annual Greenhouse Open Day on Sunday, May 7.

So if you are a keen gardener, or even not so keen, come and

FUND-RAISING SNAG

A fund-raising appeal for a South Yorkshire children's hospital has run into a spot of bother.

Organisers of the appeal, for the Doncaster Children's Hospital, distributed charity envelopes to hundreds of homes in Conisbrough, Swinton and Mexborough.

But there are now no volunteers to collect the cash donations.

Appeal organiser Maggie Morgan, of Doncaster Voluntary Services, explained that the envelopes should be taken to any local branch of the Midland Bank.

ROAD ACCIDENT TOLL UP

The number of road accidents in Rotherham rose dramatically last year.

Figures just released by Rotherham council's Highways Department show the number of accidents in 1988 climbed to 1182.

These included 221 "serious" accidents and 19 fatal.

The accident toll — the highest since 1982 — will have shocked highways officials, who last year recorded the lowest accident toll for ten years.

Rotherham Council's Road Safety Sub Committee chairman Colin Billups said: "These figures disguise the grief behind each accident. It is the young who are most vulnerable."

Those particularly at risk are pedestrians between the ages of five and fourteen; car users in their late teens and early twenties; and teenage users of pedal cycles and motor cycles.

The figures show a substantial increase in child pedestrian casualties, the figure having jumped from 88 in 1987 to 117 last year.

Accidents involving injuries to car users are at their highest since 1979.

Coun. Billups added that: "The increase in the number of road accidents appears uncountable. But my personal theory is that it is due to increasing volume of traffic on our road, due partly to local developments and partly to unusually mild weather, attracting more traffic on to the roads."

Councillors will soon consider whether to publicly display current accident statistics prominently in Rotherham.

Said Coun. Billups: "We have got to let people know what is going on. A public display of accident statistics should sharply remind people of the risks of driving and perhaps make them take a little more care."

POLICE PROBE £60,000 TYRES THEFT

Cheeky thieves who broke into a Rotherham tyre depot escaped with tyres worth almost £60,000.

Police investigating the theft, from ATS Tyres, on Fitzwilliam Road, Eastwood, believe they are dealing with a gang of "professional" thieves.

The raiders broke into the depot via a canteen window — and then calmly loaded their waiting van or lorry with 280 brand new lorry tyres.

The haul included a variety of tyres of different makes, including Goodyear, Michelin, Firelli and Dunlop.

A police spokesman commented: "Investigations into this incident are still underway. It was an unusually large scale theft and a very serious crime."

"The thieves struck midweek, sometime between 11.30 p.m. Tuesday evening, and Wednesday morning on April 4th or 5th."

MEADOWHALL ON TARGET

With nine months of construction work behind it, the £230m Meadowhall Shopping and Leisure Centre is visibly taking shape and well on schedule for opening to the public in September 1990.

The demolition of the remaining steelworks on the south west of the 138 acre site was completed in January this year, clearing the way for the next stage of construction for this exciting new Sheffield landmark, situated alongside the M1 motorway at Tinsley.

Excavation work on the car park is now complete and the superstructure for the 12,500 car parking facility has commenced.

The erection of the huge central dome of the shopping centre was completed towards the end of 1988 and already the shape of the shopping malls is clearly apparent. During the last year the managing contractors for the project, Bovis Construction Ltd., have used local sub-contractors wherever practical, and this successful policy will continue through to the centre's completion.

The sheer scale of Meadowhall is hard to comprehend, as reflected by some interesting statistics. A total of 8,500 tonnes of steel will be used; 60,000 sq. ft. of glass is needed for the roof lights and 200,000 sq. ft. of marble for the interior tiling, and 15,000 new trees will be planted in the landscaped grounds.

By the end of 1989, as many as 2,500 people are estimated to have been directly employed on the site since it started in June 1988. In August, tenants will be moving into their shop units. Fitting out of the 223 interiors will continue right through to completion in 1990, during which time shop-fitting specialists and thousands of their employees will be working at Meadowhall. All the famous retailing names are signing up to have a share in this exciting new retail venture, which presents leisure in the shopping malls as part of the Meadowhall shopping experience.

Amongst a host of British retailers joining the development are Marks & Spencer, SavaCentre, C & A, Boots the Chemist, Principles, Dorothy Perkins, Top Shop, Top Man, Debenhams, Etam, Fosters, Evans, Hornes, Next, Laura Ashley, Crabtree and Evelyn, Wallis, Dash, the Body Shop, W. H. Smith, Dixons, the Halifax Building Society, Dolcis, Ravel, Thorntons, Tie Rack, Midland Bank, Our Price, Athena, Thomas Cook, Olympus, Raters, Lunn Poly, Radio Rentals and many more... the list is impressive. Recently the house of

Fraser have joined the scheme, taking a large 100,000 sq. ft. unit.

Meadowhall has already had a tremendous impact on the local community, most importantly in terms of new employment. Once opened, the development will play an even greater role in the region, creating over 10,000 new jobs, with many thousands more involved in the 'service' industry which Meadowhall will generate.

A Problem Shared...

Write to BARBARA BOSTON if you have any problems relating to courtship, marriage or family. Barbara could be a friend in need. Letters and replies (with names strictly confidential) will be published on this page. Will readers kindly note that our expert cannot be contacted by telephone. Medical matters are not intended to be within the scope of this feature.

I NEED A MIRACLE

My husband left me three years ago, with huge mortgage arrears. Only two days earlier he told me whatever happened he would always love me — then he walked out on me, leaving me with debts, and three children (one only a baby). That was the start of my illness, and a nervous breakdown which took me into hospital so that my husband had the baby and I had a terrible battle to regain custody. The other children were desperately unhappy and there were even attempts at suicide. Now I've lost confidence, even to talk to people I have known for years, and I'm withdrawing into my shell. During the custody problems I had a social worker I could relate to and confide in, but she was taken away once the case was over. I cannot believe and accept that my husband has gone for good. I think it's a bad dream and I'll wake up one morning and it will be all right again. Do you know a miracle cure to get my confidence back, for I can't even laugh with the children now. AVRIL

I know a cure that many readers have found has worked like a miracle for them — and that is to receive letters from caring, understanding people who have read of your plight. So I will pass all letters on to you. Other ideas are: why not contact your original social worker again, and explain your loss of confidence? She may be able to help or to transfer you to another social worker you can relate to. Your older children are also now mature enough to be your friends and confidantes. Don't try to hide your worries from them, for if you face them together they will not seem so insurmountable. Face also the fact that your husband is unlikely to return, and if he did, things would never be the same again. Too much anguish, betrayal of trust and deception have come between you.

I am a happily married woman who hates going on holiday with her husband, because he does not like the sun and I do. He is happy to go on an activity holiday alone, but what I want is a place in the sun where a woman on her own does not feel out of things. Does any other woman in her 40s want to go with me? Do firms cater for people like me? I am rather shy, work part-time, have grown up children (who are not always ideal holiday companions either) and would dearly love just to try for once to have my kind of holiday. MRS MARR

This is an interesting point because there are coach holidays and special interest holidays and 'singles only' holidays but I've never heard of a specific 'lie in the sun' holiday for housewives on their own. I would suggest you talk to your travel agent about such a holiday abroad — most travel companies now make a point of including vacations for single travellers, and this offers the chance to meet and mix as much (or as little) as you want to. Or is there a volunteer companion among readers?

I am a regular kilt wearer and a friend told me that during the winter months he wears long-legged women's knickers underneath for warmth — with his wife's approval. I've tried this idea and found this form of underwear very comfortable. But I feel vaguely hesitant about getting into such a habit. WILLIAM

I have the feeling you are pulling my leg, William, as there are so many jokes about what men wear under their kilts! But if your question is a serious one, then I think the solution is quite appropriate for keeping out the cold. And it certainly is not the kind of underwear women under the age of 75 are likely to wear nowadays, so you need not feel self-conscious on that score. Directoire knickers for females are strictly garments of the past...

I am a man in my early 30's doing a course in computer studies to improve my job prospects. My problem is that I am disabled with cerebral palsy caused by being born prematurely. It affects my balance, speech and co-ordination but not my brain! I can read, write and walk, play sport etc. but talking is sometimes difficult if I am nervous or upset, however I am getting better all the time...I would so like to meet or communicate with someone of my age (male and female) who can accept me and help me to become more socially mature. I have travelled a lot and have plenty of interests. WANTED — A FRIEND

Again, I'll gladly pass on letters to this young man — for helping each other is a service that this column is here to promote!

I cannot stand any more reports of child abuse on television or in newspapers. It makes me feel sick and so angry I want to burst, that people can behave like this towards innocents. I feel I could murder such people and surely that is not right either. How can I release this terrible pressure for it is weakening my faith in a merciful God. ANONYMOUS

The best antidote for that kind of pent-up fury is action — the right kind of action — which is to lend your energies to helping victims or trying to prevent such crimes against our society. Have you considered training to be a Samaritan, or to help at, say, the local Rape Crisis centre? There must be a form of vital voluntary work you can do. Ask at your nearest Citizens Advice Bureau, or Town Hall or Voluntary Helpers' bureau for details.

I think of myself as a level-headed woman and have never been worried by what fortune tellers say or receiving chain letters. But for a few months now I've had this terrible impending fear of death. Being a Christian and knowing we must all depart this world some time does not stop this fear that haunts me. You see, I was born in 1929, married in 1959 and now it is 1989. It seems to be in order, birth, marriage, death... Can you calm me in any way? I dare not speak to my doctor — he will think I'm nuts! VERY SCARED

I only wish you had supplied me with a name and address for there are dozens of people who have had this same unreasoning fear at some time — and found it terrifying. The fact is you can make numbers say anything if you juggle them around. Why can't you say you were born (a happy event), married 30 years later (equally happy) so why does not the 30 year gap signify that 1989 will be an extremely happy year? Or that the cycle will start again by the birth of a grandchild, another marriage in the family — or that life is not so simple to analyse and the numbers and years mean nothing whatever? I think your fears are caused by loneliness, by perhaps not having enough to do, by an increasing awareness that you are growing older, or by some physical or emotional stress caused by circumstances, lifestyle, money or relationships. Try to get to the root of this yourself, and also have a word with your doctor and ask him to give you a medical check-up for there may be some small adjustment needed to sleep pattern, diet or exercise that could greatly relieve your anxieties.

You published a letter from 'Diane' who suffered awful problems during the menopause. I identified so much with her difficulties, as I too, went through hell at this stage. Until I discovered the Amarant Trust, which makes both information and treatment available to women. It helped me learn to live again. MRS T.

The address of The Amarant Trust, which advocates hormone replacement therapy is 14 Lord North Street, London SW1P 3LD

ASTRODAMIUS

AQUARIUS JAN 21 - FEB 18 The chances are that you will want to keep on the move over the weekend, and it is an auspicious time for short trips! Make sure your car is in perfect order, though, and watch out for other drivers who are flouting road safety rules. It's not your own responsibilities but those of others in whom you take a special interest which are likely of most concern later in the week.	PISCES FEB 19 - MAR 20 The more people you surround yourself with this weekend, the better, for you'll be in low spirits if you remain on your own. For unattached readers romance may beckon, but you might be wiser to avoid a new relationship. By mid-week you'll be left in no doubt about the intentions of people who have been causing you a good deal of worry.
ARIES MAR 21 - APR 20 There's nothing to prevent you from having a good time this weekend - you're very much a free spirit. And there's a wide variety of entertainment available. A good week for travel, but if you want to bring friends and family together, Wednesday will be the best day for entertaining them at home.	TAURUS APR 21 - MAY 21 There are romantic overtones to what's going on during the weekend and early days of this week, so romance should be perking up! You and your beloved will be in perfect harmony. In general, most of this week favours anything that comes under the heading of social activity.
GEMINI MAY 22 - JUN 21 Friends will keep you on the move this week; thanks to them you'll be covering a lot of ground in record time, so you won't suffer a moment's boredom. You may have an opportunity to make some extra cash. On Tuesday, you realise it won't be easy to find the right solution to domestic problems.	CANCER JUN 22 - JUL 22 Venus and Mars both play significant roles in all that happens this week - so you'll have some heart-warming experiences now. Someone will be going out of their way to show their regard for you. Mid-week's planetary groupings are in your favour if you're taking on fresh work or business.
LEO JUL 23 - AUG 22 You get an accurate hunch about something this weekend; it's a very good time for extending hospitality - but on a modest scale! Something you're longing for will come about now. Monday and Tuesday might be two of the most important days this month.	VIRGO AUG 23 - SEP 22 You benefit most of all from the weekend planetary line-up, for the current positions of Mars and Venus make it a time when everything goes smoothly and when you get a lot of stimulus from friends. You can take all you are doing well in your stride, for you will be in complete command of yourself.
LIBRA SEP 23 - OCT 22 No need to feel at a loose end socially if friends are inaccessible; in fact, you'd probably enjoy the company of strangers more. The important thing is to get out and about. Tuesday's a day to keep busy behind the scenes preparing for changes in the career area of your life.	SCORPIO OCT 23 - NOV 22 For you, as for several other of the zodiac types, a change of scene is a must this weekend, as the aspects are excellent for travel. Those hoping the weekend will have some romantic appeal won't be disappointed. You may have to wait upon other people to make their intentions clear around mid-week.
SAGITTARIUS NOV 23 - DEC 21 You deserve all that you can get in the way of pleasure this weekend to make up for the hard work you've been putting in over the past few days. Good weekend for sport, or light-hearted flirtation if you're in the mood for it. You get through work methodically this week.	CAPRICORN DEC 22 - JAN 20 Forget the past and leave the future to take care of itself; make the most of present conditions to enjoy yourself with friends. All to the good if you are doing so elsewhere than at home. The week's planetary vibrations make it easy to conjure up or improve on practical ideas for safeguarding your interests.

Play It Again, Sam
by Woody Allen

Woody Allen's Broadway hit comedy opened in New York in 1969, and later became a cult movie — both starring Allen in the part of a neurotic divorcee — Allan Felix.

Described as a romantic comedy in three acts, 'Play It Again, Sam' is a highly entertaining play reinforced with a strong line in the ironic wit which Allen was later to make his trademark.

Tickets £3.25/£2.35; concessions £1.60 (except Saturday).

RECORD EDITORIAL FEATURE

RECOLLECTIONS

A name to remember...

Everyone has at least one special photograph.

Photographs of loved ones, of absent friends, of a favourite scene... nothing preserves the past or captures a special moment more effectively.

Little wonder then, that more and more people are seeking the services of a professional photographic reproduction specialist.

Just such a man is Rotherham Record Photographer John Bates, whose skill and professionalism have over the years earned him a steady stream of work from top PR Consultants and the national press.

John and the small team of workers who run the business collectively have over 42 years of experience in photography.

Now, in addition to their usual work, John and his small team are launching a new business as top class specialists in the reproduction, framing and mounting of old black and white photographs.

The name of the new business is Recollections — and if photographs are important to you, this will surely be a name to remember.

"Using both traditional and modern techniques, it is now possible to make quality reproductions of most old photographs — complete with a negative," said John, who has worked for the local and national press for 22 years.

The new business has grown naturally out of John Bates' life-long interest in photography.

Proof of this is John's fine collection of old Rotherham photographs — probably one of the largest private collection in existence.

Many are on display in the Recollections showroom, on Middle Lane, Clifton — and all are available in reproduction, mounted and framed to individual requirements.

These nostalgic views of Rotherham's past are the perfect enhancement for local commercial and industrial premises.

As well as providing and reproducing old photos, the Recollections staff team — John's wife Anne, his father and photo technician Jean — provide a quality picture mounting and framing service.

All frames are individually made on the premises by Recollections' experienced staff, providing an unbeatable double advantage. Frames are of the finest quality and inexpensive.

Furthermore, the wide range of frames available — soon to increase to around 80 — means that you are sure to get the frame they want.

Furthermore, John and his team still provide a first class press and P.R. photographic service.

Recollections can be found at 100 Middle Lane, Clifton, near to Clifton Comprehensive School.

West Country Draw About Right

Report by Dave Nicholls

Nigel Johnson returned to the Millers line up to the exclusion of Phil Crosby. This was the only change to the squad that earned a 1-1 draw at Halifax eight days earlier.

Exeter had Kevin Miller from non league Newquay making his debut in goal. First choice Dave Walter was suspended and their reserve keeper was injured.

It was the Millers who could have taken an early lead after just 90 seconds. Bobby Williamson's challenge on keeper Miller saw the ball break to Des Hazel some twenty five yards out, but he could not direct his hurried effort on target. Hazel then fired over the top after cutting inside and Goodwin brought a good save from the home keeper, plunging down at his near post to save.

EXETER 0
ROTH. UTD. 0

Rotherham had to battle against the strong wind in the second half but the defence again looked in fine form. It was in midfield where Rotherham were looking most vulnerable and the service to Bobby Williamson and Paul Haycock was not of the quality needed to unlock the City defence who had two fine centre backs in Rogers and Taylor.

With twenty minutes of the second half gone Rotherham brought off Mark Dempsey for John Buckley who took a wide position on the left with Shaun Goodwin moving into midfield. It was the latter who showed up well for United, making some powerful and courageous runs at the city defence.

Exeter were always in with a chance of snatching a winner and two excellent tackles from Andy Barnsley saved the day. One late effort by Benjamin was handled competently by keeper O'Hanlon. In a final hectic ten minutes Rotherham went close on three occasions to snatching the winner. Russell fired just over from twenty yards, Bobby Williamson saw his shot cleared off the line after a fine move and finally Martin Scott hammered a 25 yard free kick straight at keeper Miller who just managed to turn it over the cross bar.

The disappointment for Rotherham was that they failed to put the home inexperienced keeper under much pressure in the second half. However a point was a fair reward for the long journey to the West Country.

My man of the match was Andy Barnsley.

With just five games remaining the title race is wide open with six clubs still within a shout of the Championship. Let's see Barnsley for the final push for promotion that the club has worked so hard for all season.

Amy in Mudpit Ordeal

A Rotherham schoolgirl had to be rescued after she became trapped up to her waist in mud on a building site.

It took two policemen 45 minutes to rescue 10-year-old Amy Kirby, who became stuck in a mud pit near to the Ben Bailey building site, at Fitzwilliam Street, Swinton.

Amy's ordeal began after she and her twin sister Susie went out to play at the bottom of Fitzwilliam Street, Swinton last Thursday evening.

Amy of Hollywell Road, Kilnhurst, described how her sister had fallen into the mud and how she had rescued her — and then became stuck in the mud herself.

"It was very frightening," said Amy, a pupil at the St. Thomas Junior and Infant School, Kilnhurst.

and friends and neighbours tried desperately to free his daughter from the mud but couldn't.

The distressed youngster was eventually pulled free by Rotherham policemen PC's Heath Marshall (33) and Chris Marshall (24).

The two had rushed to the site after being alerted by a worried neighbour.

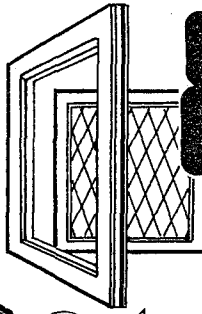

Said Amy: "I just kept sinking into the mud. I was there for about an hour but the policemen pulled me out by my arms."

Amy was unhurt after her ordeal but very upset, said a police spokesman.

Police are now issuing a stern warning about the danger to children of playing on building sites.

"This incident clearly illustrates just how dangerous these places can be. Parents should try to make sure that their children keep away from building sites."

A spokesman for Ben Bailey Homes this week endorsed the warning.
